

WHY FREIBURG?

Through experiential learning and classroom studies, students develop their German language skills and learn about sustainable urban design.

Founded in 1120, Freiburg is in the Black Forest in SW Germany near the French and Swiss borders. It is a flourishing medieval city and a modern & bustling university town!

STUDY GERMAN + SUSTAINABILITY IN FREIBURG, GERMANY

THE GREEN CITY IN THE BLACK FOREST

May 31 - June 25

NO PRIOR GERMAN NECESSARY!

SCAN THE QR
CODE FOR MORE INFORMATION!

COURSEWORK

Our Faculty

Dr. Heide Crawford

Principal Lecturer of German

Dept. of Germanic & Slavic Studies at UGA

Director, Study Abroad

Freiburg

hacraw@uga.edu

Our Program

*1 German culture course
plus*

1 German language course

Total: 6-7 credit hours

o German 3550

German culture course taught by Dr. Heide Crawford

o German 1001, 1002, 2001, 2002, 3010, or 4001

German language courses taught at The Goethe Institute

Costs

Program fee: approx. $2,200.00

Airfare: $1,600-1,800 (on your own)

Tuition: $326/credit hr. (in 2024)

Food & personal expenses:

plan for four weeks

Financial Aid: Hope/Zell applies

See financial aid travel grants and other resources at:
GSstudies.uga.edu/freiburg

GERMAN+SUSTAINABILITY

Study Abroad in Freiburg, Germany

May 31- June 25, 2025

APPLICATIONS DUE JANUARY 24, 2025

GSSTUDIES.UGA.EDU/FREIBURG

