

Where to Eat and Drink in Downtown Athens, GA

on Map	American (New)
1	The National                      American (New) - $$$   232 W Hancock Ave  Casually elegant farm to table restaurant popular with both vegetarians and omnivores. Open for lunch and dinner; also has a bar with craft cocktails (reservations recommended for dinner 706-549-3450).
2	The Branded Butcher                      American (New) - $$$   225 N Lumpkin St  Upscale charcuterie in sleek, modern surroundings.
3	Seabear Oyster Bar                      American (New), Seafood - $$$   297 Prince Ave  Oysters on the half shell and other creative farm-to-table dishes, with craft cocktails. For vegetarians, there is a good grilled cheese! Also the best fries in Athens (not on the menu—just ask for them)
4	Last Resort Grill                      American (New), Southern - $$   174-184 W Clayton St  Popular date-night spot for students and a favorite of many locals too. Especially known for their cakes.
5	South Kitchen &amp; Bar                      American (New), Southern - $$   247 E Washington St  Classy food in a renovated historic building. Has a good happy hour and is just a stone's throw from the Hilton Garden Inn.
	American (Traditional), Diners, Cafes and Sandwiches
6	The Grit                      Vegetarian, Vegan, Diners - $   199 Prince Ave  Iconic, legendary vegetarian diner that is the favorite restaurant of many, including non-vegetarians. Can be healthy or indulgent, depending on what you order! Make sure to look at the board for the specials.
7	Ted's Most Best                      Pizza, Salads and Sandwiches - $$   254 W Washington St  Bright and upbeat atmosphere with Christmas lights on the patio and spacious booths inside. Serves thin-crust pizzas, with local beer on tap.
8	Big City Bread                      Bakery &amp; Café - $$   393 N Finley St  Beautiful and spacious outdoor patio is especially nice for dining outdoors. Serves breakfast, lunch and dinner; food is good but service can be a little slow, so best not to go if you're in a hurry.
9	Clocked                      American (Traditional), Diners - $   259 W Washington Street  Retro diner known for burgers and milkshakes. A good choice if you're craving something simple and greasy.
10	The Rooftop                      American (Traditional) - $   215 N Lumpkin Street  Outdoor restaurant and bar on the rooftop of the Georgia Theater. Free live music many nights of the week, with views of downtown!
11	Pouch                      Comfort Food, Pubs - $   151 E Broad St  Right on the edge of campus, a family-owned fast-casual restaurant that serves up a variety of savory pies with mashed potatoes and gravy.
	Barbecue and Soul Food
12	Dawg Gone Good BBQ                      Barbecue - $   224 W Hancock Ave  Classic southern barbecue in a no-frills setting with very friendly owners. Some of the sides are vegetarian, and it's open until 3 am on Fridays and Saturdays!
13	Pulaski Heights BBQ                      Barbecue - $$   675 Pulaski Street  Hipster barbecue on the train tracks. BYOB, with a wine store in the same building (just ask). The best

	part is Pulaski Street itself, which has a unique vibe.
14	Weaver Ds Southern, Soul Food - $   1016 E Broad St Homey little lunch spot that inspired the title of REMs album “Automatic for the People”. Think steak and gravy, fried pork chops, collards and cornbread.
	Indian, Asian
15	Taste of India Indian - $$   131-B East Broad St Indian buffet that is perfect for a very hungry person in a hurry. Vegetarians will also find plenty to eat.
16	Mother Pho Vietnamese - $$   167 E Broad St Vietnamese noodle soup and bahn mi sandwiches, very close to the edge of campus.
17	Thai Spoon Thai - $$   149 N Lumpkin St Popular Thai restaurant with a warm and cozy vibe, very close to the edge of campus.
18	Athens Wok Thai, Chinese - $   493 E Clayton Street Right around the corner from the Hilton Garden Inn. Don’t let the lack of ambience fool you—the food is actually pretty good!
19	Shokitini Japanese, Sushi - $$   251 W Clayton St Popular spot for sushi and karaoke.
	Coffee Shops
20	Jittery Joe’s Coffee & Tea, Bakery - $   297 E Broad St Locally roasted coffee and good baked goods too, with some space for socializing and working.
21	Hendershots Coffee & Tea, Bar - $   237 Prince Ave Big, eclectic and inviting coffeehouse with plenty of tables, couches, and outdoor space to relax. Also serves up beer, wine, and snacks. Opens early and closes late, often with live music in the evening.
	Gastropubs
22	Trappeze Pub Gastropubs - $$   269 N Hull St Outstanding selection of both local, national and international brews. Great for a bar-stopover before dinner elsewhere, though the food is decent, too.
23	The Globe American (Traditional), Bars - $   199 N Lumpkin St Inviting pub with lots of warm woods, rocking chairs, and a fireplace. A very popular meeting place close to the edge of campus.
24	The World Famous Bar, American (New) - $$   351 N Hull St Small townie bar and music venue with great bar food that can easily be a meal. Sandwiched in between Manhattan and Little Kings.
	Bars
25	Little Kings Shuffle Club 223 W Hancock Spacious and funky, with picnic tables and a boat outside. Hungry? There are free gummy bears, cheese puffs and peanuts—just ask the bartender.
26	Manhattan Café 337 N Hull Street Old-school bar with funky décor, cheap drinks and free popcorn. Dark and cozy inside.